

Parishioner Survey:

Check the box that reflects your answer.

	Strongly Disagree	Disagree	Neutral	Agree	Strongly Agree
The Holy Spirit has a profound impact on my life
People in the parish have experienced the transformational power of the Holy Spirit in their lives
People in our parish recognize the gifts of the Holy Spirit in their lives
The parish has been transformed because of people's encounter with God
People in our parish understand that the Holy Spirit is a person with whom you can have a relationship
Without the power of the Holy Spirit acting in peoples' lives, our parish wouldn't be where it is today
There is intentional time taken to ask for the Holy Spirit's guidance in parish activities
We have learned to discern when the Holy Spirit is speaking to us
We intentionally set aside time to reflect on what the Holy Spirit tells us
We look for confirmation from the Holy Spirit before we act on a decision
We seek to differentiate between human wisdom and the wisdom of the Holy Spirit
I can point to risks we have taken in our parish in pursuit of the Holy Spirit's direction
We do not hesitate to act in situations where we are dependent on the Holy Spirit working
We can point to times when we have stepped out in obedience to the Holy Spirit
Our faith is repeatedly demonstrated by the risks we have taken
Our dependence on the Holy Spirit is demonstrated by how we face risks
I am eager to share my faith with others
We allocate parish resources more heavily toward sharing an evangelization program like Alpha, so everyone can respond to the good news.
We budget heavily for evangelization and sharing the good news
We are prepared to seek funding outside of the budget for evangelization when resources are required
We have allocated specific human resources whose singular focus is evangelization
We allocate building resources for evangelization programs, like Alpha
Our budget is created according to our priorities
When planning programs, priority is given to evangelization
Presenting the good news is a priority in the execution of all our programs.
Primacy is given to programs like Alpha, that are intended to articulate the good news of the gospel with people outside the parish.
Our parish focuses more on catechetical programs than on our evangelization programs

Parishioner Survey:

Check the box that reflects your answer.

	Strongly Disagree	Disagree	Neutral	Agree	Strongly Agree
Sharing the good news with others is taken as the responsibility of everyone within the parish
Desiring people to respond positively to the good news of Jesus is a critical component of the culture within our parish
For those within the parish, living is seen as an opportunity to express the good news of Jesus to others outside the parish
It is not normal in our parish for individuals to share how they have responded to the good news of Jesus
It is considered normal for our parish to provide people an opportunity to respond to the good news of Jesus
I am eager to share my gifts in service of the parish
Our parish has a clear vision of where we are headed.
Our leadership consistently shares where we believe God is calling this parish
Discerning what God desires this parish to be has been a priority
Our leaders continue to cast vision for this parish
There is little agreement in our parish about where it is headed
Our leadership has clearly identified steps on how we can fulfill the vision
Our leadership's planning produces clear actions in the direction where we want to go
Our plans become reality because we develop systems to get us there
Those in our parish can see how the clear action steps we take fulfill our vision
Putting priorities into actions is one of our strengths
Our parish gives leadership of programs to teams comprised of gifted individuals
The gifts of many people in teams bring health to our parish
Our parish forms teams to accomplish our vision
Our vision becomes a reality because of the contributions of many people working in teams
Our parish priest leads from a team to accomplish the vision
There are opportunities for individuals in our parish to develop their gifts
Several times a year, there is some opportunity for people to develop their skills in leadership
Our parish encourages everyone to develop their leadership skills
I don't recall any specific emphasis where I could grow my leadership skills in the parish
I know where I need to grow in my leadership skills					